

Mr Vic Lewis, a vice-president of Brisbane Water Legacy (right) presents a framed certificate of appreciation to Mr George Wills, president of the Ettalong Hotel SS Fishing Club in recognition of the club's support for six legacy wards.

A total of $4800 was given away to local charities, community and sporting groups at the annual presentation night of the Ettalong Hotel SS Fishing Club.

In addition to these cheques, the club, during the past 12 months, purchased a respirator for Brisbane Water Ambulance service at a cost of $160 and gave $70 to the fund for the families of the victims of the Mascot air disaster.

The club also spent $3500 on a Christmas feast for senior citizens in its area.

The groups which received cheques on the annual presentation night were: Umina Netball Club, $100; Umina Junior RLF Club, $250; Brisbane

Water Legacy Wards, $300; Umina Surf Life Saving Club, $100; Umina Stingrays, $100; Woy Woy Emergency Service, $250; Combined Ettalong/-Booker Bay Pensioners, $500; Brisbane Water Senior Citizens' Club, $500; Ettalong Scouts and Cubs, $250; Ettalong Girl Guides and Brownies, $250; Ocean Beach Mermaids, $250; Royal Blind Society, $250; RSL Women's Auxiliary, $200; Umina 1st and 2nd Scouts, $100; Umina TPI Social and Welfare Club, $200; Woy Woy and District Community Service, $400; Salvation Army, $300; Volunteer Bushfire Fighters' Appeal (Colin Carter fund), $300; Woy Woy Hospital special purpose fund, $200.
