At right: Sir Roden and Lady Cutler meeting executive staff of the Gosford District Hospital. From right Matron I. Inskip, Medical superintendent, Dr. Ian Walters, and Hospital Board member Mr. Reg Eddy. In the background are Hospital Board chairman Cr. Bob Vaughan, and Mrs. Vaughan.
At Right: Medical superintendent of the Gosford District Hospital, Dr. Ian Walters introducing Sir Roden to sisters and nurses who formed a guard of honour for the distinguished visitors at the hospital.

Below: Lady Cutler, who is President of the Guiding Movement in N.S.W., meets local Guide Leaders. From left, Mrs. M. Hunter, Avoca District Commissioner; Mrs. L. Stone, Gosford District Commissioner, and Mrs. K. Bolton, Brisbane Water Divisional Commissioner. The occasion was the laying of a wreath on the Cenotaph by the Governor. Guides and Scouts formed a guard of honour. Kelvin Masters photos.
Sir Roden and Lady Cutler were officially welcomed to the Gosford District Hospital by the Chairman of the Hospital Board, Cr. Bob Vaughan and Mrs. Vaughan.

Light rain continued as the dignitaries were led into the foyer of the hospital to meet the chief executive officer, Mr. Neville Boyce, Residential Medical officer, Dr. Ian Walters, Matron and members of the Board.

Before making an inspection tour of the hospital, Sir Roden bestowed the British Empire Medal on outstanding district personality, Mrs. E. O. Mortimer in a private investiture.

Present with Mrs. Mortimer during the ceremony were two of her children, Mrs. RHeg Clarke, and Cr. Ralph Mortimer and hospital nurse Miss Sheather.

Filling through a guard of honour made up of nurses, sisters and aides, the vice-regal couple often paused to speak to members of the guard.

TRIUMPH

The inspection tour was hailed as a triumph. “Going their separate ways”, Sir Roden inspected some of the men’s wards and Lady Cutler the women’s. Both seemed genuinely interested in each patient they