

Hospital auxiliary to meet

The twenty-fourth annual general meeting of Ettalong Beach branch of the United Hospital Auxiliary of NSW will be held on Monday afternoon, July 9 at Ettalong CWA.

Among the distinguished guests to attend this meeting will be the metropolitan vice-president of U.H.A., Mrs E. Griffiths, representatives of Gosford and Woy Woy Hospital staff, chief executive officer, Mr Neville Boyce, Gosford shire president Cr Don Leggett and auxiliary patron Mr W. Hall B.E.M.

Mr Neville Boyce will be guest speaker for the occasion and Mr Leggett will also give a short address to those representing a wide range of interests on the Woy Woy peninsula.

Anyone interested in this type of work or intending members are most welcome to attend this important occasion.

Gala premiere will aid hospital

Charity film night

A special film screening at the Village Twin tomorrow night is that outrageous comedy, California Suite.

The film is special because it is the one chosen for a gala charity premiere conducted by Lions with the help of The Express and 2GO to raise funds for an oxygen monitoring machine for Gosford District Hospital.

Six hundred seats are available for the film night at $5 each and have been selling fast.

California Suite, starring Alan Alda, Bill

Cosby, Jane Fonda and Walter Matthau is set in the palatial Beverly Hills Hotel. Some of the screen's best known and loved stars play guests at this world famous hotel.

The situation comedy sees each of the stars for a few hours caught in various dilemmas.

California Suite was produced by Ray Stark and directed by Herbert Ross.

Stark and Ross were producer and director of Simon's The Sunshine Boys and The Goodbye Girl both of which won Academy awards for their stars.

California Suite will be preceded by a wine and cheese tasting at 7 pm.

Bookings can be made at the Village Twin or Green Point - Avoca Lions.
